DESCENDANTS OF EDMUND/EDMOND EMERSON (1828, TN-1904) & MARGARET (FRENCH) KIDD

The following information on Edmund Emerson Kidd and his children was compiled by Rosa (Rose) Elizabeth Kidd Austin and provided by Jerry D. Kidd of Stillwater, OK. Items in parentheses provided by David M. Kidd.

Additional document revision, text formatting, and narrative editing provided by Kenneth D. Kidd.

The US Census of 1860 lists Edmund's personal value at $350.00. Real Estate - $2,500.00. He was a farmer and a horse trader in his later years, doing business from his front porch. (His wife) Narcissa, was known as 'Cissy'. Edmund lived all his life around Blount County, TN. He was the father of twelve children, two died in infancy.

James Randolph Sr., second child of Edmund Emerson, moved to Texas in 1886. His first wife Mary is listed on the US Census of 1860, but nothing more is known of her. It is presumed she died shortly thereafter. The U.S. Census of 1880 lists James R. and second wife Rachel, living with her mother Elizabeth (Betsy) Taylor. It is presumed that her husband Wiley (Taylor) was dead at this time. When Betsy married Wiley, he was a widower with a daughter, Frances, and two sons who were killed in the Civil War. Rachel was known to often say she "was born in "Eighteen Hundred and Sixty One, the year the cruel war begun".

By 1886 J.R. had brought his family to Elam Thicket in Texas in a wagon pulled by a team of horses. They bought forty acres and cleared the land to plant crops. A small house was built with a picket fence around it to keep the animals out. Before they could dig a well they got water from 'mudholes' (probably local naturally occurring ponds). The 1900 census lists J.R., Sr. and family living in Kaufman TX, precinct #8. The sons were given a black-land farm by James R. and Rachel when they reached adulthood.

Michael A. (Mike), fourth child of Edmund Emerson, rode to Texas on horseback with his brother James R., Sr. seeking a better way of making a living. The rich black land of Ellis County looked so promising that they decided to move to Texas and make it their home. Michael married Zyrilda (Rildy) Davis, sister of his brother Riley's wife, Theodocia. The census lists Zyrilda born in Alabama. The 1900 census lists them living in Ellis County (Waxahachie, county seat), Texas. They were the parents of eight children. Three died in infancy. Michael was a farmer. After his death, Rildy lived a time with James R. Sr.'s wife Rachel, in Fort Worth.

Riley Jacob, fifth child of Edmund Emerson, attended college in Maryville, Tennessee until the age of 20 years at which time he left Tennessee and came to Texas. He did not return to Tennessee or talk about his relatives. Upon his death his Grandson Laroy, contacted Nannie Lou Simmerly in Maryville, TN and found out about his Grandfather's family. Riley helped to raise Laroy after the infant's mother died in the influenza outbreak of 1918. Riley lived in Richardson, Texas.

Marshall Burnside KIDD, sixth child of Edmund Emerson, left Tennessee and settled near Richardson, Texas. After his death, the widow (Jospehine Wilkinson Kidd) took the four sons and moved to California. One son, Clarence, became a Methodist minister. He attended seminary at Southern Methodist University (SMU) in Dallas.

Emerson N.(U.?) seventh child of Edmund Emerson, lived in Kaufman, Texas in 1900. In 1908 he was reported leaving New Mexico after homesteading land there which he bought for $1.25 an acre. He wrote that the land was too dry and he was going to Altus, OK. to farm.

George French, eighth child of Edmund Emerson, was also persuaded to move to Texas, but only stayed two years as his wife was so unhappy. Also, by then, the cotton boom in Texas had gone bust. He moved back to Tennessee in the fall of 1909. He took care of his father and inherited the Kidd farm.
